

LHM 4-5

U.S. Department of Justice

Federal Bureau of Investigation

DCI/IC 85-5350

CONFIDENTIAL

26 APR 1985

Office of the Director

Washington, D.C. 20535

LOGGED

BY LIAISON

April 19, 1985

25X1 [redacted]
Director, Intelligence Community Staff
Washington, D.C.

25X1 Dear [redacted]

25X1 I would be pleased to make available Supervisory
25X1 Special Agent (SSA) [redacted], of the Behavioral
25X1 Science Unit at the FBI Academy and his psychological expertise
25X1 to "Project [redacted]."

25X1 [redacted] of our Intelligence Division
25X1 will also be assigned to provide operational expertise.
25X1 [redacted] is an experienced counterintelligence investigator,
25X1 a lawyer, and a lecturer on the subject of espionage. He had
25X1 already begun a study very similar to "Project [redacted]."

25X1 [redacted] who supervises counterintelligence analysis in the Intelligence Division, recently completed a project in an unrelated but very similar area using psychological profiling techniques in cooperation with 25X1 [redacted] We will also make him available so that the current
25X1 research can benefit from his recent assignment. [redacted]
25X1 has had some professional association with [redacted] in the past and is familiar with the potential offered by personality profiling.

FBI, DOJ Reviews
Completed

CONFIDENTIAL

Classified by: 05
Declassify on: OADR

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1

25X1

25X1

[redacted] is away from Washington, but will be in contact with [redacted] on April 25, 1985, to set up preliminary discussions.

25X1

We appreciate the possible value to Countermeasures Programs throughout Government and especially in the Intelligence Community, which [redacted] proposal represents. We welcome the opportunity to join with him, and are pleased his plans parallel so closely our own ongoing and recent research projects.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Webster
Director

CONFIDENTIAL

-2-